

News Release

Atlanta DeKalb International Training Center (ATLANTA DITC)
The Living Legacy Institution of the Atlanta 1996 Olympic Games

HSH Prince Albert II of MONACO
Co-Founder & Honorary Chair
Dr. Marc-Daniel GUTEKUNST
Co-Founder & Co-Chairman, CEO
Ambassador Andrew YOUNG
Co-Chairman

Atlanta October 27, 2009

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: ATLANTA DITC Public Relations

Phone: 770.901.6020

Fax: 404.321.5774

IOC Member and USOC Board Member James L. Easton

Meeting ATLANTA DITC Principals and Visiting the Brook Run Campus

ATLANTA – On October 30, 2009, Mr. James L. Easton will be flying his private jet to Peachtree DeKalb Airport. During his two and half hour visit, Mr. Easton will meet with Ambassador Andrew Young, ATLANTA DITC Co-Chair, Dr. Marc-Daniel Gutekunst, ATLANTA DITC Co-Chair & CEO, Mr. Herb Edwards, ATLANTA DITC Chief Operating Officer, Mr. Murray Sanford, ATLANTA DITC SPORTS Director, as well as the principal partners of the ATLANTA SPORTS VILLAGE™. During his short Atlanta visit, Mr. Easton will have only time to visit the Brook Run campus where athletes in training with the ATLANTA DITC are housed.

There are currently 112 International Olympic Committee (IOC) Members, and Mr. James L. Easton is one of only 2 IOC Members from the United States. Mr. Easton is also one of the 9 United States Olympic Committee (USOC) Board Members. From 1989 to 2005, Mr. Easton was President of the Fédération Internationale du Tir à l'Arc/International Archery Federation (FITA).

"Mr. James Easton special trip to DeKalb County to meet the principals of the ATLANTA DITC demonstrates once again the unique standing achieved the ATLANTA DITC in 7 short years within the Olympic and Sports families," says Ambassador Andrew Young ATLANTA DITC Co-Chair.

"In the near future we would love to play an active role promoting archery in metro Atlanta, as well as adding archery to the list of sports offered by the ATLANTA DITC," says Dr. Marc-Daniel Gutekunst, ATLANTA DITC Co-Chair & CEO.